3. What personal data is collected

- 3.1. Names, titles, and aliases;
- 3.2. Contact details such as telephone numbers, addresses, and email addresses;
- 3.3. Where they are relevant to the services provided by a council, or where you provide them to us, we may process demographic information such as gender, age, marital status, nationality, education/work histories, academic/professional qualifications, hobbies, family composition, and dependants;

4. The council will comply with data protection law.

This says that the personal data we hold about you must be:

- 4.1 Used lawfully, fairly and in a transparent way
- 4.2 Collected only for valid purposes that we have clearly explained to you and not used in any way that is incompatible with those purposes.
- 4.3 Relevant to the purposes we have told you about and limited only to those purposes.
- 4.4 Accurate and kept up to date.
- 4.5 Kept only as long as necessary for the purposes we have told you about.
- 4.6 Kept and destroyed securely including ensuring that appropriate technical and security measures are in place to protect your personal data to protect personal data from loss, misuse, unauthorised access and disclosure.

5. We use your personal data for some or all of the following purposes:

- 5.1 To deliver public services including to understand your needs to provide the services that you request and to understand what we can do for you and inform you of other relevant services;
- 5.2 To confirm your identity to provide some services;
- 5.3 To contact you by post, email, telephone or using social media (e.g., Facebook, Twitter, WhatsApp);
- 5.4 To help us to build up a picture of how we are performing;
- 5.5 To prevent and detect fraud and corruption in the use of public funds and where necessary for the law enforcement functions;
- 5.6 To enable us to meet all legal and statutory obligations and powers including any delegated functions;
- 5.7 To carry out comprehensive safeguarding procedures (including due diligence and complaints handling) in accordance with best safeguarding practice from time to time with the aim of ensuring that all children and adults-at-risk are provided with safe environments and generally as necessary to protect individuals from harm or injury;
- 5.8 To promote the interests of the council;
- 5.9 To maintain our own accounts and records;
- 5.10 To seek your views, opinions or comments;
- 5.11 To notify you of changes to our facilities, services, events and staff, councillors and role holders;

- 5.13 To process relevant financial transactions including grants and payments for goods and services supplied to the council
- 5.14 To allow the statistical analysis of data so we can plan the provision of services.

6. What is the legal basis for processing your personal data?

- 6.1 The council is a public authority and has certain powers and duties. Most of your personal data is processed for compliance with a legal obligation which includes the discharge of the council's statutory functions and powers. Sometime when exercising these powers or duties it is necessary to process personal data of residents or people using the council's services. We will always take into account your interests and rights. This Privacy Policy sets out your rights and the council's obligations to you in detail.

- 6.2 Sometimes the use of your personal data requires your consent. We will first obtain your consent to that use.

7. Sharing your personal data

- 7.1 The council will implement appropriate security measures to protect your personal data. The Privacy Policy provides information about the third parties with whom the council will share your personal data. These third parties also have an obligation to put in place appropriate security measures and will be responsible to you directly for the manner in which they process and protect your personal data.
- 7.2 Our agents, suppliers and contractors. For example, we may ask a commercial provider to publish or distribute newsletters on our behalf, or to maintain our database software;
- 7.3 On occasion, other local authorities or not for profit bodies with which we are carrying out joint ventures e.g. in relation to facilities or events for the community.

8. How long do we keep your personal data?

- 8.1 We will keep some records permanently if we are legally required to do so.
- 8.2 We may keep some other records for an extended period of time. For example, it is current best practice to keep financial records for a minimum period of 8 years to support HMRC audits or provide tax information.
- 8.3 We may have legal obligations to retain some data in connection with our statutory obligations as a public authority.
- 8.4 The council is permitted to retain data in order to defend or pursue claims. In some cases the law imposes a time limit for such claims (for example 3 years for personal injury claims or 6 years for contract claims). We will retain some personal data for this purpose as long as we believe it is necessary to be able to defend or pursue a claim.
- 8.5 In general, we will endeavour to keep data only for as long as we need it. This means that we will delete it when it is no longer needed.

9. Your rights and personal data

You have the following rights with respect to your personal data:

9.1. When exercising any of the rights listed below, in order to process your request, we may need to verify your identity for your security. In such cases we will need you to respond with proof of your identity before you can exercise these rights.
